

ENGINEERING a career

- ▶ Inspire change for engineering-based careers education.
- ▶ Educate students on cross-subject career opportunities in engineering.

'Engineering a Career' is a new short course perfect for school career leads and guidance teachers. It highlights opportunities for cross-subject interests leading to amazing careers in Engineering.

UNIT 1

The Engineering Landscape and Mindset

Acquire contemporary research and thinking about the engineering landscape and mindset

UNIT 2

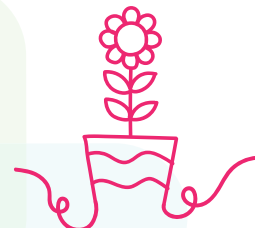

The 'If you were an Engineer' Competition

Participate in our national competition, bringing engineering directly into the classroom

UNIT 3

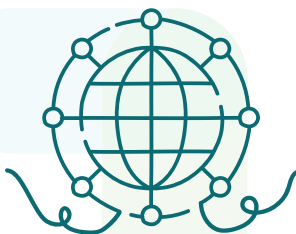

Engineering Careers Workshop

Introduce your students to engineering and the different types of engineering job specialisms

UNIT 4

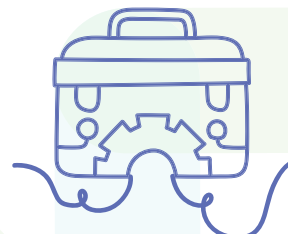

Engineering Industry Visit

Organised visit to a local engineering industry, site tour and meet engineering professionals

UNIT 5

Inspiring Engineering Careers

Learn about inspiring engineering stories and share your Engineering a Career portfolio

